W. H. Woodward & Son of Mexico, Mo., have an unlimited amount of money to loan on improved farms in Missouri and Kansas at the lowest rates of interest. Money furnished on day of application, when title is perfect.

Wanted, Poultry.
I want it kind of understood that I buy all kinds of game and poultry. For cash or goods at market price and sell goods as low as any white man in North Missouri. Call and see me, on south Jefferson street, 35-41.
W. A. MORAN.

THREE BIG MEETINGS.

At Which Over Three Hundred Signers Were Obtained to Shields' Pledge—Last Night's Meeting.

Capt. Shields lectured to a large audience in the opera house Saturday night, at which about one hundred persons signed the pledge. A children's meeting Sunday afternoon also brought out a large crowd, but last night the opera house was packed to the doors, many being turned away before 7 o'clock. Capt. Shields' subject was the "Goliath of the Present Day; and the Davids." Nearly one hundred signers were obtained at the same place. Follow are the names of those who signed the pledge Saturday evening, Sunday afternoon, and last evening:
